

Richard Croker Builds a Tomb For Himself on American Soil

RICHARD CROKER'S TOMB.

Richard Croker, when he dies, will be buried in American soil, and he has chosen the warm, hospitable soil of Florida, which he has learned to love so well in vigorous life, for his last resting place. The photograph shows the tomb the former Tammany chief has caused to be erected at West Palm Beach.

18 BBLs. OF BOOZE SAVED ON LAST DAY

Two Men Caught Are Accused of Attempting to Steal $18,000 Worth While Two Escape.

Two men were arrested, two others escaped, and an attempt to steal eighteen barrels filled with liquor was nipped in the bud last night when detectives Rocco Cavone and John Lahey of the Beach Street Station who were walking along Hudson Street near Franklin, were recognized they say by four men who were in the act of making away with the spirits, five barrels of which had already been loaded on a three-ton truck. Detective Cavone drew his revolver and headed off two of the accused.

The liquor was being taken from the warehouse of the Merchants Distributing and Export Corporation, No. 144 Franklin Street, it is charged. A door had been forced and thirteen barrels rolled up behind it.

Two men were locked up on charges of burglary and taken to Police Headquarters. They described themselves as Louis Brun, twenty-eight, of No. 590 Tenth Avenue and John Verbia, twenty-nine, of No. 650 West 41st Street. The liquor is valued at $1,000 a barrel.

J. H. FLAGLER HOME AT GREENWICH SOLD

Had Not Been Occupied Since the Death of Widow a Year Ago.

The palatial residence of John H. Flagler in North Street, Greenwich, Conn., which has not been occupied since the death of Mrs. Alice M. Flagler a year ago, has been sold to Walter C. Teagle of New York, President of the Standard Oil Company.

It is understood between $300,000 and $400,000 was paid for the estate of forty acres. The residence is of the Spanish

NAVAL OFFICER MISSING.

General Alarm for Lieut. C. F. Bennett, Who Vanished From Astor.

The Missing Persons Bureau at Police Headquarters was requested yesterday to send out a general alarm for Lieut. Carroll F. Bennett, thirty-four, of the United States Navy, who, on Dec. 28, disappeared from the Hotel Astor, where he had resided a week. The request was made by Chief Investigator Thomas J. Sheehan of the Naval Intelligence Office, who said Lieut. Bennett disappeared when he was to have returned to duty following a furlough.

Lieut. Bennett has been an officer in the navy four years. His home is in Washington, and it is said he comes from a wealthy family. It is believed he is a victim of foul play or amnesia. Friends said he carried a considerable amount of money when he left the hotel.

Proud Girls and Bored Boys Will Like These Glad Togs for Graduation

It's a big day, is graduation. Fellows may not be interested—or they may think they are not. But when the day actually arrives they will strut all the prouder in a new blue serge. And, of course, a comfy overcoat is as important as a diploma.

To the girl, graduation stands for a new, fluffy, fairy-like frock of shimmering white. To her it is the thrill that comes just about twice in a lifetime. Of course, the second time is when she sees herself decked as a bride.

And knowing just how important an affair graduation is, we have collected frocks and suits worthy of the occasion.

Boys Will Need

Blue Serge Suits
$12.95 to $27.95

Now everyone knows that there are blue serge suits in varieties good, bad and indifferent. They grow like weeds—and like cultured plants. So it is doubly important that one choose be wary—usually.

In this collection, however, all you need think about is getting the right size and the appropriate style. The quality is above reproach in every single suit. The tailoring is trim and of a sort that stands up after long wear. All the seams are taped—and all the seams are super-sewed. Sizes range from 8 to 18 years.

Mackinaws are
$9.95 and $12.95

You might buy him a mackinaw as a gift—or you might buy him a mackinaw just because. But whatever your reason, you must surely buy him a mackinaw. And these are so woolly and warm as well as good to look at. The plaids are gay, but not too gay. And the models are sensible. Sizes from 8 to 18 years.

Corduroy Trousers
are Marked $2.95

Boys like corduroy trousers because they wear so very well. One doesn't have to take care of them a bit. These come in sizes from 7 to 17 years.

Girls Will Need

Frocks of White Voile
$2.95 to $14.95

White voile is really as dainty a fabric as one could wish for—and yet it launders and wears as staunchly as many a heavier fabric. And these particular frocks have ever so many pretty little touches to commend them.

Organdie and lawn dresses are also included in this group. Some are lace trimmed, others have embroidery. Sizes 8 to 16 years.

White Net Frocks
$11.95 to $18.95

Ruffles and ruffles and ruffles—and every little girl loves them. Some of these ruffled frocks are accordion pleated—and that makes them even prettier. Fine hand embroidery daintifies some of these net dresses. Some are most effectively trimmed with lace. Every one of them is mighty pretty. Sizes from 8 to 16 years.

Georgette Dresses
$15.95 to $39.50

White Georgette in simple styles but with a little lovely lace—what frocks these are! And the ruffled models have their own peculiar way of being charming. Most of these frocks have wide white satin sashes that hang demurely when the little lady stands—and float gayly when she walks. The sizes range from 8 to 17 years.

A Corset Special

Bon Ton Corsets: $3.49

As every woman knows, this is an unusual price for a corset of such excellent lines. There are only 85 corsets in this sale—discontinued models and factory seconds. There are even some lace-front models in this lot. And at the price, we predict a speedy clearance.

On account of the limited quantity no mail or telephone orders will be filled.
